UNVEIL FIRST RECOVERED ICBM NOSE CONE IN WILMINGTON

GENERAL SCHRIEVER
UNVEILS FIRST MISSILE
NOSE CONE TO TRAVEL
5,000 MILES

The first man-made object in history to arch into space, travel the full ICBM distance of 5,000 miles and be recovered after plunging back into the earth's atmosphere at 15,000 mph was unveiled last Thursday at the dedication of the AVCO Research Center, Wilmington, Mass.

The object, a Thor-able re-entry vehicle which hurtled from Cape Canaveral, Fla., to a point off Ascension Island last month, was unveiled by Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, head of the Air Research and Development Command.

The vast new Avco Research Center, located a few miles from Boston, marked its dedication with a panel appraisal of 'Mankind in the Space Age.' Participating were nine distinguished scientists, including two Nobel Prize winners. Leaders of science, government and the military services were among guests at a dedication luncheon following the panel.

Avco scientists had a major role in solving the re-entry problem of intercontinental ballistic missiles. The company has been assigned research, development and production responsibility for the nose cone of the Air Force ICBM. It also has been awarded research and development responsibility for the nose cone of the follow-on Minuteman solid-fueled ICBM.

Lt. General Bernard A. Schriever (right) views the first intercontinental ballistic missile nose cone recovered by his Air Research and Development Command. The Commander of ARDC unveiled the Thor-Able re-entry vehicle with Colonel John Dodge, Ballistic Missile Division director of re-entry vehicle development, and Dr. Jack A. Kyger, director of missile technology for Avco Research and Advanced Development Division, during dedication ceremonies of the Avco Research Center, Wilmington, Mass.

This is the Air Force Thor-Able rocket which carried the RVX-1 nose cone 5500 nautical miles from Cape Canaveral on April 8. Purpose of the flight was to test Avcoite, a heat-resistant material developed by Avco Corporation.

QUESTION ON BETTERMENTS

Last year--the residents of Marcus Road applied for and had their road put in under the Betterment Act. This Betterment Act calls for an equal pay basis for all the residents on that particular street.

During the time of laying of the street, an obstacle was encountered that called for a certain piece of equipment, which the town did not possess. This piece of equipment cost several hundred dollars, the amount of which was applied to those residents of Marcus Road.

Since then, the equipment has been stored in town sheds and on town property.

The point in this article is, Should the people in Wilmington, who apply for a street (or water) under our Betterment Act, have to be assessed for necessary equipment which later becomes property of the Town? If that is so, could not our town purchase a truck or tractor or any such piece of equipment that they see fit to complete a job? All at the expense of a few taxpayers?

All things being equal--our town could, over a period of years, amass an inventory of equipment for all types of road construction at no cost to the town, but to those people who were willing to pay their share in street construction.

We don't say it would happen--we say it could--as long as these acts go unquestioned.

A few weeks ago, the junior paper had an article in which it referred to the local Democrat machine. This was an aftermath of a meeting with certain citizens and two public officials at the home of Rene LaRivee, in a sincere attempt to come up with a solution to a problem which has consistently plagued our town officials--gravel operations.

Contrary to what the junior paper reported, Frank Hagerty knew all about that meeting. He had been asked to come but said that unless it was imperative that he be there, he had to be at his office at Greers, but left his phone number with the request that he be notified as to the results of the meeting.

At the meeting, the question of the bills in Legislature that had been filed by our town of Wilmington in regards to control of gravel removal in Wilmington was discussed.

Senator Madden and Representative Donohue expressed the feeling at that meeting that the Bill as worded didn't seem to have much of a chance of going through as it was too broad and not confined to the local situation. It was agreed by all those citizens present that the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Town Manager and Town Counsel would appear at the State House on the following Monday morning to draft a substitute bill in its place.

Representative Tanner, who had filed the original bill, was present that Monday morning, along with Representative Donohue and Senator Madden. With the above mentioned town officials, they drafted substitute bill and it was filed.

Two weeks ago the bill which had passed through the House and Senate, was signed into law by his Excellency Governor Furcolo and today the town of Wilmington has an amount of control over gravel removals.

Among those present at that meeting at LaRivee's home were: James McLaughlin, Chairman of the Town Democrat Committee; Frank Donahue, Housing Authority; Dan Gillis, Planning Board; Walter Hale, Board of Appeals.

None of these men were acting in any official capacity for the town, merely as interested citizens to attempt to aid the town in a problem that was causing a great amount of concern.

This explanation is being written in an attempt to enlighten the citizens as to how the situation was remedied. The fact that no public explanation has been forthcoming from Hagerty as to why he was not present at that meeting, and the insinuation that the Democratic machine was trying to become a power in town--makes this article necessary.

The veterans in town are doing something about the fact that our own George Spanos doesn't have a television set. A raffle is being held, now, and all proceeds will go to the purchase of a TV set for the Mayor. Tickets will be available at the Wilmington Press, Shamrock Drive-In, Jim's Variety. All citizens are asked to give a little for George, who has given so much.

According to one citizen in town, winter is officially over. Monday night he discarded his long johns, and to this writer, it will be warm from here in.

Those citizens on Lower Woburn Street aren't any happier over the conditions on the street than they were last week, when they met with the Board of Selectmen for an explanation as to why Woburn Street has not been fixed since the installation of Sewerage System for AVCO last year.

If anyone has any doubt as to the condition of the controversial Ruggerio gravel operation, now that its complete, it calls for a drive down Andover Street. The unsightly hill that caused a blind spot in the road has been removed, the entire scope of the operation has been graded, brush and stone removed, topsoil has been spread all over the ground that was involved, and by no power of imagination can anyone see how the operation has been anything but beneficial to the town. If this operation is an example of how Campanella and Cardi Company operates, it raises the question--Why all the Fuss?

The VFW Post 2458 will conduct their Poppy Drive Friday--May 22--and Saturday--May 23. In respect to all those veterans who gave their lives, and to those, disabled, who made these poppies--Don't forget--please--buy one.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Don Kidder and Fire Chief Art Boudreau paid a visit to the Maxim Motors Company of Middleboro, last Monday to inspect the new aerial ladder truck.

This 75 foot ladder truck will cost some 34,000 plus dollars, and is expected to be delivered next Monday.

Photos show firemen playing water on the fire at the Kunigenas piggery farm buildings - last Saturday. At the height of the fire, which destroyed 3 farm buildings and killed 13 pigs - the flames and smoke were visible for miles (WC PHOTO - CHARLES DOLAN)

Cancer can no longer be called a "woman's disease." The American Cancer Society says that 53 out of every 100 cancer deaths occur among men.

Some 255,000 Americans died of cancer last year. But 75,000 lives could have been saved through earlier treatment, the American Cancer Society says.

KINDERGARTEN CONFERENCE

On Friday May 15, the teachers of the Brookside Kindergarten attended the Annual New England School Development Council Conference at Andover. The theme was "Creative Arts in the Kindergarten" and the walls of the High School Cafeteria and corridors were gay with many delightful displays of creativity.

Speaker for the morning was Miriam Ulrickson, Educational Consultant for Binny & Smith, Inc., and she crammed into forty minutes--several hours of workshop demonstrations and ideas. Both Mrs. McCabe and Mrs. Kemp left the hall brimming with plans for the few remaining weeks of school.

Following lunch, the teachers were entertained by the famed illustrator of children's books, Munro Leaf, who highlighted his humorous talk with cartoons depicting some of his most familiar characters.

All who enjoyed this Conference, left with the feeling that it was a day well spent.

THEFT FROM BAYER AND MANGOLA

On May 15, at 4:45 p.m. officials of the Bayer and Mangola Construction Company complained to police that construction equipment valued at approximately $70.00 had been stolen from a bridge on the new route 125 sometime during the previous night.

Officer Mercier went to the scene and is still investigating the theft.

ROTARY TO FETE BURLINGTON CLUB

With District Governor Henry Koslowski and former District Governor Ken Faulkner in attendance, Wilmington Rotary is planning a special luncheon-meeting for June 2 in honor of the district's newest club on the occasion of its first anniversary. This joint meeting with the Burlington Rotary will be held in Wilmington at Masonic Hall, with the luncheon beginning at 12:15. Many local dignitaries from both towns are expected to be in attendance. Burlington received its charter just a year ago, with Wilmington as the sponsoring club, and Past President John Gleason as the special representative of Rotary International during the inaugural proceedings.

Wilmington's Wednesday luncheon-meeting was presided over by President Henry Foster, with Sergeant-at-arms Ralph Swanson leading the flag salute and Past President John Gleason conducting the song fest. Dance committee chairman John Collins reported on a very successful spring dance festival which took place last Friday night in aid of the student loan fund. According to Mr. Collins, the fund is expected to benefit by several hundred dollars after all the receipts are in. President Foster announced that chits covering the Swampscott conference are now due and payable to treasurer Dav Davis. Doctor Ernest MacDougall reported that Donald Tobey, who was taken ill quite suddenly, is resting quite comfortably at the Winchester Hospital. Vice-President Bill Stevens announced a specially-conducted tour of AVCO at 1 p.m. next week following the regular luncheon meeting. Visiting rotarians introduced by Fred D Cain were: Hugh Eames of Reading, Dom Giampietro of Canton, Walter Hopkins of Reading and A.P. Rounds of Stoneham. Guest of Al Osterman, and also introduced by Fred was Ed LaTour. Pinch-hitting in the speaking program was Ernest Swanson one of Wilmington's newest Rotarians. Giving a run-down of his experiences in chemical engineering, from college days to the present time, Swanson detailed a large-scale effort to produce nitric acid from air, which although quite successful, proved to be uneconomical, and was therefore abandoned after many years of work.

One DISAPPOINTMENT is too many

I'm often asked if home permanents have hurt our business. Actually, I think they've helped us to grow! Only by experimenting with your own hair can you understand the full value of professional care. One disappointing home experiment will show you why we learn our craft so carefully — and why we constantly attend classes to improve our techniques. So, next time, come to us . . . for results you know you'll be proud of!

Professional curlers contribute much to your beauty salon wave, too! Yes, I know you can use vari-sized curlers at home—but how can you guess just how to place each curler in order to shape your hairstyle as your hair waves on the rods? When we wind your hair for a beauty salon permanent, the process is like that of an artist preparing his canvas for a beautiful portrait. We pick each sized curler for a purpose. This takes years of professional know-how!

PERMANENT BUILDING COMMITTEE REPORT

The advent of good construction weather has seen rapid strides being made towards the completion of the Glen Road Elementary School. The deep frost during the winter, in some places as much as 4 1/2 ft., unfortunately delayed construction to a large degree and caused the Permanent Building Committee and the contractor grave concern as to the possibility of meeting the completion date for the school. Some of the delay caused by the severe winter weather has already been overcome by the careful planning of the contractor in scheduling of materials required for the school. At the present time, all materials which are to be incorporated in the school have been acquired by the contractor; and all materials and sketches requiring approval by the architects have been approved. No delays are expected, therefore, in getting the necessary materials. The work is now progressing very rapidly and it is hoped that the weather, which has been such an obstacle until recently, will now become an aid to the contractor in regaining his original schedule. The first evidences of interior finish of the school have become visible in that some of the structural glazed block, which will be the interior wall surface finish for the school throughout up to a height of 5 1/2 ft., has been started and serves as a good indication of the fine quality of the school.

The Permanent Building Committee has suggested to the School Department and the Recreation Commission that they meet with the Planning Board to ascertain what type of recreation development would best meet the needs of the Town in this area. The Committee, when it has been so advised, will promptly undertake to provide whatever is requested.

The Police Station plans and specifications have been completed and are now ready to be put out for bid. The Permanent Building Committee, with the advice of the architect, decided to hold the issuance of the plans and specifications for bid until such time as the Highway Garage is also ready to go out on bid as we believe it possible that a savings may be achieved by advertising the two projects at the same time. This will permit a contractor to reduce his overhead costs with a resulting savings to the Town.

"To the publisher of the Wilmington Crusader"

Dear Sir:

Would you please publish this article in your paper to the "Mothers of the Whitefield School."

We, as a very small group are trying to keep alive, The Mothers' Club of the Whitefield School. It is a very nice group and we all have a very pleasant meeting together once a month on the third Wednesday of each month for the benefit of Our Children.

We have the full cooperation of the teachers, who are anxious to keep the mothers well informed as to what "our children" are going, and in that way we can get together on their problems and iron them out together.

There are some mothers that are more than willing to go along with the idea, and there are some who seem to show no interest whatsoever.

If we can keep in mind that it is for "our children" maybe a few more would come in and work with us. It is for the benefit of the children that we do this.

We have a wonderful principal Mrs. Ethier and if more mothers could come in and talk with her, they would see just what is going on.

My only regret is that after four years my son will not be at the Whitefield School any longer but I hope to keep in touch with Mrs. Ethier if only to tell her how my son is doing. I feel that the first four years molds them for the upper grades.

Sincerely,
Alice Ouellette

The CRUSADER
Wilmington, Massachusetts

Dear Sir:

I write from the Sanctuary, a refuge for homeless dogs upon a hill-farm in southern Indiana. I am the staff--the one fighting woman who is trying to hold the place together. In times past those who love dogs have been good to us, and so we ask again, bearing in mind our debt in gratitude.

We need food (of any sort) and old towels, blankets or pieces. Almost anything has an application here.

45 cold noses and warm hearts salute you!

W.H.A. PROTESTS D.P.U. ACTION

In the regular meeting of the Wilmington Housing Authority held on May 19, 1959, the Authority as an elected body, representing the Housing and Urban Renewal interest in the Town of Wilmington, voted to request the support of the Congressional Representatives in voting down #HR 7117, the Herlong Amendment currently pending before Congress. The Housing Authority further stated that a formal protest was now being sent to the responsible State officials in reference to the present action of the Department of Public Utilities, preventing the rerouting of train service across "The Wildcat Branch" of the B & M Railroad in Wilmington.

It was the Housing Authority opinion that the action on the part of the DPU would have an overall detrimental effect on the continuing development of Wilmington.

NEEDLESS DEATHS

About 46 per cent of all breast cancer patients are now being saved. The American Cancer Society says 81 per cent of the patients could be saved if the disease was diagnosed and treated early.

PERMANENT BUILDING COMMITTEE REPORT

The Highway Garage will be ready for bids in a very short time since it is a simple building to construct. At the present time the Permanent Building Committee and the Board of Water Commissioners have been discussing the siting of the garage. Every effort is being made to conform to the wishes of both the Highway Department and the Water Department in locating the exact site of the garage on the Town owned land off Andover Street. An early decision on it is expected and the Highway Garage and Police Station will be advertised shortly thereafter.

The Committee has also had several meetings with the Planning Board and its consultants on the long range school building needs, and the Permanent Building Committee's report and recommendation on that problem will be issued within a short time.

SMITH

Elizabeth P. Smith of Laurel Ave., passed away on May 14 following a brief illness. She had been a resident of Wilmington for the past 10 years, being formerly of West Poland, Maine. She was 93 years old.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her son, Harold, with whom she was making her home at the time of her death. She is also survived by 7 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and 4 great-great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted on Saturday morning, May 16 from the Joseph B. McMahon Funeral Home, followed by a solemn high Mass of Requiem at St. Thomas Church at 9 a.m.

Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

GRISWOLD

William H. Griswold of Grove Ave., passed away suddenly on May 11. He was the husband of the late Lillian Landers and was a resident of Wilmington for the past 15 years. He had been retired for the past several years and was a veteran of World War One.

Mr. Griswold is survived by two sons, David Landers of Wilmington and James Landers of Winthrop. He is also survived by several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on May 15 at 8:15 a.m. from the W.S. Cavanaugh and Son Funeral Home, followed by a Solemn High Mass of Requiem at St. Dorothy's Church.

Interment was in the family lot at Wildwood Cemetery.

BROOKSIDE KINDERGARTEN REGISTRATION AND OPEN HOUSE

On Friday, May 22 the doors of the Brookside Kindergarten, at 403 Woburn Street will be open to anyone interested in visiting or wishing to register for next fall. We particularly wish to welcome those who are already enrolled for next year.

Coffee will be served between the hours of 2 and 4 so come and get acquainted!

We wish at this time to thank the special guests, who so kindly came and added to our program:-the two policemen, Mrs. Sheehan and Mrs. Langone. We also enjoyed a visit from a charming Japanese war bride, Mrs. Joseph Medico, who dressed in her native costume, explaining the customs etc. to the fascinated audience.

Our present classes are enjoying the usual Spring events--our annual trip to the zoo, a picnic at the Sheepfold area, and finally, our out-of-door graduation exercises on June 12. This is always scheduled a week ahead of school closing, in case of bad weather; and the necessity of post-ponement.

THE OTHER DAY

A friend was telling us some interesting things about habits...the tendency of all things in nature to settle into fixed ways of doing things. It seems that in addition to the invariable pattern of everything in the universe, the habit of doing things always in the same way reaches down to the smallest ideas and things we know and do. For example, all trees of one species grow in a definite form, such as the elm has the habit of spreading. All cud-chewing animals such as cows, camels, goats, deer, etc., always rise rear end first, while all our other four-footed friends get up front end first. (And my friend says that mama cow doesn't have to admonish each calf with "now remember dear, always get up rear end first.")

Most of us, as another example, always put on a coat right arm first. If you don't think so try putting on your coat left arm first. Such habits have nothing to do with conscious thoughts. But that's where we humans add something else. Besides unconscious habit we form habits that are the product of our thinking, and they are the ones that can be good or bad.

Thank goodness, in our business everyone tries to put good habits to work for you, and we really try to stamp out a bad action before it can become a habit. If you ever see us starting a bad one, please tell us about it at once.

THREE BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Thirteen pigs perished and almost 200 others escaped a fiery death last Saturday afternoon when a general alarm fire leveled three buildings and destroyed valuable machinery in the piggery owned by Kunigenas & Son, off MacDonald Road, near the Tewksbury line. Fire officials said the estimate of damage will be near $50,000.

A one-story 150 foot long building known as the cook house was leveled by the blaze as were two other buildings in the piggery which covers about 200 acres and houses approximately 1000 pigs.

The fire was punctuated by two explosions when two 275 gallon oil storage tanks blew up. No injuries were reported. Seven other buildings housing pigs escaped damage.

Officials said the blaze apparently started when burning trash ignited the main building housing the boilers and other equipment used to process waste before it is fed to the pigs. Smoke from the burning buildings, which had an outside covering of heavy tar-paper, could be seen for six or seven miles.

Several of the pigs freed from the burning buildings by firemen were believed to be suffering burns.

Every piece of town apparatus responded with firemen being directed by Chief Arthur J. Boudreau. One piece of apparatus responded from Tewksbury, directed by Tewksbury Chief William Chandler.

Last reports are that several pigs are still loose in the area.
